* Project 1	Personal Video: Make a personal video introducing you to your fellow classmates. In this video, explain who you are and why you chose this lesson. This video should generally be identical to your identity on the internet. In this way, you will meet the video production process and get your first video experience. The Process: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. You can use all images of you or about you or about you regarding your appearance on the Internet. Indicate what website you took it from. If you don't have images on the internet, use them if you have the images on your computer's hard drive or on your family members' computers.</li> <li>2. Select and edit images that best describe you. Perhaps you can come across images on the internet that will describe you better.</li> <li>3. You can use Creative Commons (CC) licensed music. Try to use music that is relevant to your life flow. Music without lyrics may be better, but finding the right music may take some time. You can also record and use your own music if you find it worthwhile.</li> <li>4. Edit this piece of music or sound you find accordingly.</li> <li>5. Write a script based on your identity that your voice and visuals match. Remember, your target audience is your classmates. The aim here is to explain who you are and why you are here. To do this, choose your message, prepare your content, determine your structure, create your story, and highlight it.</li> </ol> Submission: Week 6 First, everyone should have a YouTube channel. You need to write your story. Choose the subject and start writing. You must write everything that will take place in the video frame by frame. The process should be compatible with your video. Create your video by combining the images that describes you on the Internet and adapting your voice to the story you have written. The video should not exceed 2-3 Minutes. Upload this video you have prepared to your YouTube channel and upload the link to the homework section that I will open on its learning (Video + Script)	100	15
